Dear Leone,

My daughter and I have just been looking at a charming picture of the Moon family. All nine children are in it and your parents. And, that is what has triggered this letter to you. I have been wanting to write you for so long, and have just kept putting it off. The one question that I have wanted to ask you is this. How old was your mother, Molly, when she left Ireland to come to this country? I would like to know, too, how old was Johanna, the oldest of Grandpa Lane's three daughters? And, what age was Kate, the middle daughter?

Other questions come to my mind. What was Grandpa Lane's mother's name?

My mother, Daisy, and I have visited Ireland three different times. We found Grandpa Lane's birth registration at a church in Kenmare, Ireland.

I am writing this letter hurriedly. But, I have been wanting to know these answers for a long, long time.

I remember visiting your family when you lived in Globe or Miami, Arizona. Earlier, we visited your family at Ysleta when your father was still living.

I remember visiting at a later time. I was 18 and was on my way to Tucson to go to the University of Arizona. Your brother, Robert or Bob, was 28. He took me to Juarez to all of the night clubs. He knew everyone and they knew him.

We didn't have the Lane reunion this year. Maybe later on in the summer. I will close now and get this letter in the mail. Oh, yes, what is your son's name who lives in Dallas? And, his address?

Hoping to hear from you soon, I am

As ever yours,
